

2nd Annual International Conference Reinventing Urban Futures - Regenerative Cities for a Resilient Planet

3-4 September 2026, Leicester (UK)

Organised by the Institute for Sustainable Futures and UNAI Global Hub Chair for SDG 11: Sustainable Cities and Communities

United Nations
Academic Impact

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

11 SUSTAINABLE CITIES
AND COMMUNITIES

A two-day event for co-creating transformative urban solutions, networking and collaboration

Dr. David Rubens, Executive Director of the Institute of Strategic Risk Management will deliver the keynote speech. He will also lead a workshop on Reimagining Urban Futures on the first day of the conference.

ISRM is also hosting three webinars in June, July and August in preparation of the conference.

Regenerative Urbanism

Reimagining Urban
Infrastructure

Key Themes

Revitalising Urban Economies

Rethinking Urban Governance

Research Papers

Contribution types

Posters

Lightning
Talks

Two workshops:
1) Reimagining urban
futures
2) How to co-create,
resource and incentivise
regional research and knowledge exchange
collaborations?

Hybrid mode of participation:
In person in Leicester (UK)
and Online

Register for free
<https://isfconference2026.our.dmu.ac.uk/2026/07/01/register-now/>